1 (Court in Session at 10:02 a.m.)

2 THE COURT: Good morning.

3 MR. MICHAELSEN: Good morning.

4 THE COURT: I have a matter to take up -- well, actually
5 I have several matters to take up this morning. This is in the 6 case of United States of America vs. Donna M. Preszler and
7 Terrance W. Preszler. The number of the case is 13-6010-01/02-
8 CR-W -- excuse me, CR-SJ-FJG. Let me get the AUSA's appearance, 9 please.

10 MR. MICHAELSEN: Your Honor, Jess Michaelson on behalf
11 of the United States.

12 THE COURT: And counsel for the defendants, please.

13 MR. LYNCH: John Lynch on behalf of both defendants,
14 Donna Preszler and Terrance Preszler, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Now, we've got, as I
16 mentioned, a large number of items to take up here. I'm going to 17 try to go through them in some semblance of order here from the 18 least concerning to the most concerning, ending with the change
19 of plea for each of these defendants. The pleas, I'm going to 20 deal with most of the proceedings here with -- as to both of them
21 jointly. But when we get to the pleas, because that's such a 22 significant step for a defendant, I'm going to take those 23 individually. And, of course, they can both remain in court
24 while we're doing that. But I feel it's important that I address 25 each of them individually when we get to the plea section of

1 this. So, just so that everybody kind of knows where we're
2 going. Let me deal with probably the most basic of the issues we
3 need to address. We have Ms. Preszler already in the system.
4 She was released on bond and at some point we need to do an
5 initial on the Superseding Indictment. But she's already set on 6 bond. So, we have to take up the issue with regard to bond for 7 Terrance Preszler. And I have received a report on Mr. Preszler,
8 which I have seen and I assume the parties have all seen it. Any 9 corrections to that report by the United States?

10 MR. MICHAELSEN: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Have you seen the report, Counsel, and gone
12 through it with your client?

13 MR. LYNCH: Yes, Your Honor, I have.

14 THE COURT: Any problems with the report?

15 MR. LYNCH: No, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to follow the 17 recommendation made by Pretrial and set conditions here. They're 18 basic conditions, Mr. Preszler. They include the following:
19 First, that you're not to commit any offense while you're out on 20 bond. Second, you're to advise Pretrial of any change in your 21 address or your phone number within 48 hours. Third, appear at 22 all proceedings as directed by this Court. I'm setting what's 23 called a personal recognizance bond for you. That's just your 24 promise to do everything that I'm telling you to do, and I'm 25 confident you'll do that. There's additional conditions that you

1 submit to the supervision of the Pretrial Service Office, obey
2 all of their instructions and report to them once a week. Also,
3 I'm going to direct that you not have on you or anywhere around
4 you any firearm, destructive device or dangerous weapon. So, if 5 there are any guns in the house, you need to get them out of the 6 house while you're out on this release order. And finally,
7 you're to report to Pretrial 30 minutes before any court
8 proceeding that you're required to attend. I'm going to go ahead
9 and allow counsel to review the penalties and sanctions with Mr.
10 Preszler. If that's acceptable with you, I'll let you do that.
11 And I'm signing the order indicating that he'll be released on 12 those conditions just as soon as that procedure has been 13 completed. I understand that he needs to be processed at some 14 point by the Marshals. So, if you would head down to that office
15 after we get done here, that would be helpful. I'll leave this 16 up for you up here. You can come get it. Now, the next thing I
17 want to cover is this issue with regard to the conflict of 18 interest. We're going to get that out of the way first of all.
19 And I think, and everyone would agree, that given the fact that 20 the posture of the case is where we have both defendants in front
21 of me for a change of plea, it's at least apparent that there
22 doesn't seem to be much of a conflict that could potentially 23 arise in this case given the posture of it. Does the Government
24 agree with that analysis?

25 MR. MICHAELSEN: The Government is in agreement with

1 that, Your Honor, and we are not opposed to Mr. Lynch
2 representing both defendants at this time.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And how about you? Are you in 4 agreement with that?

5 MR. LYNCH: Yes, Your Honor. And I have reviewed in 6 detail with both clients the legal ramification of allowing me to 7 represent both of their interests in this case.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And I note that we have -- both of 9 them have signed Waivers of Conflict here, and those will -- they 10 have already been filed in the court records, so we have that 11 before me. I do want to address both of these defendants
12 individually though about this issue. And as I mentioned, that 13 we don't think there is a potential conflict here because you're 14 going to go ahead and we anticipate pleading guilty here. But 15 it's important that you understand kind of the right that you
16 have under our Constitution to be represented by separate,
17 independent counsel here. And so -- and the purpose of that is 18 to make sure that when your counsel is dealing with you and 19 dealing with this case, that he or she is devoting his interest
20 exclusively to protecting you and not the co-defendant in this
21 case. So, for example, there could be situations that arise
22 where if we had one lawyer representing two defendants, there
23 could be a conflict that would arise from that relationship. And 24 let me explain to you kind of what it is in general and then I'll 25 give you some examples. In general what it is, is that in

1 performing his function as an attorney, Mr. Lynch would be
2 required to have access to both of you and interview both of you
3 and get your sense about, you know, what the events are here and 4 who's culpable and not culpable and those types of things. In 5 doing that, he might learn information from Mrs. Preszler that 6 would be helpful to Mr. Preszler. But because he has an 7 attorney-client relationship with Ms. Preszler, he's not able to 8 share that with Mr. Preszler. So, that would put him in a
9 conflict where he would have to decide whose best interest does 10 he wish to serve, Ms. Preszler's or Mr. Preszler's. That's the 11 type of situation we're talking about here. And so it kind of 12 splits the lawyer in terms of what he's able to do in 13 representing each of the clients vigorously. And by doing one
14 thing that might help one client, in turn, he would be hurting
15 the other client. So, that's essentially what we're talking
16 about here. It could arise in many instances if this case were 17 going to trial. But it could also arise in this case in which 18 you want to plead guilty. And here is how it would arise. Mr.
19 Lynch might be in a position where he could argue that -- and 20 which I think is perhaps even the situation here -- that Mr.
21 Preszler is not as culpable as Ms. Preszler. And so he's 22 representing though both of you. But in arguing that Ms.
23 Preszler was more culpable and, therefore, Mr. Preszler shouldn't 24 be dealt with more severely, he would be put in a difficult
25 situation because he represents both of you. And that's the kind

1 of situation that will likely occur here. I mean, I think
2 probably there is a distinction between the involvement of each
3 of you in this alleged scheme. So, it's probably something
4 that's going to come up in terms of sentencing, so. But as in 5 all things, or at least most things, you have a right to waive
6 that problem and go ahead and continue with him representing here
7 jointly of both of you if you wish to do that. Now, I hope that 8 I have explained that clearly. But sometimes I don't. So, if 9 you don't understand part of this and you want to ask me some 10 questions about it, you should feel comfortable doing that,
11 because this is an important Sixth Amendment right that you have 12 here. And so if you couldn't afford to get separate, independent 13 counsel, we would take an affidavit from Mr. Preszler, for 14 example. And if he qualified for appointment of counsel, we 15 would bring in a separate, independent lawyer to represent him or 16 he could -- if he had the funds, he could retain his own
17 individual lawyer if he wished to do that. So, first of all,
18 have I explained that adequately to each of you? Ms. Preszler,
19 do you understand what it is I'm talking about?

20 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir. I do understand.

21 THE COURT: Now, if you don't, let me know. Okay?

22 MS. PRESZLER: No, I do understand.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MS. PRESZLER: Thank you, Judge.

25 THE COURT: Because I noticed that you looked to

1 counsel, which you should do. But if you don't think you know
2 what I'm talking about, let me know and I'll try to go through it
3 again.

4 MS. PRESZLER: No, we did understand it and John did
5 explain to both of us and I fully understand it and fully agree
6 with having him represent both of us.

7 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

8 MS. PRESZLER: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: So, do you have any questions you want to 10 ask me about it?

11 MS. PRESZLER: No, sir.

12 THE COURT: All right. Now, how about you, Mr.
13 Preszler?

14 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, I'm all right with it, too.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So, you think you understand the 16 significant constitutional right you're waiving here by doing

18 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And now do each of you understand,
20 and you may be seated for this. You don't need to stand. Do
21 each of you understand that if we go forward like this and we do
22 have something that crops up later on, you can't complain about 23 it at that point. You're not going to be able to ask the judge
24 or the court of appeals or the Supreme Court to set aside all 25 this business. Do you understand that?

1 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

2 MR. PRESZLER: Uh-huh.

3 THE COURT: Yeah. Both of you?

4 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Now, I want to ask you
6 some questions about the voluntariness of the waiver and the 7 knowledgeableness of the waiver. I will assume that each of you
8 thinks that you've had an opportunity adequately to discuss this 9 with your counsel here, unless you indicate that that has not 10 been the case. I will also assume that each of you understands
11 the nature of the waiver here, unless you want to ask me a
12 question. Nobody is indicating they have a question here. Now, 13 Ms. Preszler, with regard to your waiver, has anyone made any 14 threats or promises to get you to do this?

15 MS. PRESZLER: No, sir.

16 THE COURT: Is it your voluntary act?

17 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And do you want me to go ahead and 19 allow you to proceed jointly?

20 MS. PRESZLER: Yes.

21 THE COURT: And with regard to your situation, Mr.
22 Preszler, is this a knowing and voluntary act on your part?

23 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

24 THE COURT: And do you want me to go ahead and proceed
25 and allow you to continue to be represented by a single lawyer?

1 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay, sir. Then I will, at least at this
3 point, accept it. Does the Government have any additional 4 questioning they want to raise?

5 MR. MICHAELSEN: No, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And, Counsel, do you have any questioning
7 you want to raise?

8 MR. LYNCH: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Now, the next thing that we're going
10 to do is I want to go through what's called an initial appearance 11 with you. We have a Superseding Indictment. Ms. Preszler has 12 already been in the system and there was an original Indictment
13 there that she was aware of. But we now have a Superseding
14 Indictment. And, of course, Mr. Preszler has not been in the 15 system until this moment. So, with regard to the Superseding
16 Indictment, Counsel, have you had an opportunity to review it and 17 discuss it with your clients?

18 MR. LYNCH: Yes, Your Honor. With both clients.

19 THE COURT: And with regard to the charges here, is 20 there any need for me to go through the charges with either of 21 your clients or do they understand what they are charged with?

22 MR. LYNCH: Your Honor, I reviewed in significant detail
23 the nature of the charges and they will waive the formal reading.

24 THE COURT: How about the penalty ranges here? Do you
25 want me to cover those with the defendants?

1 MR. LYNCH: Congruent with the nature of the charges,
2 Judge, I also reviewed the potential penalties associated with 3 each of the three statutes at issue.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Then with regard to these charges on 5 the Superseding Indictment and the penalty ranges, I'm not going
6 to read these to you, Ms. Preszler. Is that okay with you?

7 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir. That's okay.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And with regard to the charges and 9 the penalty ranges, is that okay with you, Mr. Preszler?

10 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. You think you understand what the 12 nature of the charges are here?

13 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Then we're not going to move forward
15 with any kind of arraignment. I think it's just prudent to move
16 directly into the plea setting unless somebody has got a
17 different take on that. Okay. So, now where we're going to go
18 at this point -- do you want to have a minute to confer?

19 MS. PRESZLER: No.

20 THE COURT: No. Okay. I saw you leaning over, so I get 21 concerned. If you want to -- she's probably telling you this 22 judge will never get through this, so, just relax. We'll get to 23 the end here. With regard to the plea proceedings here, this
24 case is currently assigned to one our District Judges, Fernando
25 Gaitan. And so he's asked me to take the pleas here. And I can

1 only do that, because I'm not an Article III judge, if you and
2 the Government consent to it. In other words, you have to agree
3 to have the plea taken by me. And then if so, then the final
4 sentencing would be done by Judge Gaitan. With regard to me
5 taking the plea, any objection by the United States?

6 MR. MICHAELSEN: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: And have you had an opportunity to discuss
8 that issue with your clients?

9 MR. LYNCH: Yes, Your Honor. And we have no objection
10 as well.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So, I'm going to take the plea here.
12 Is that okay with both of you?

13 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

14 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Good. All right. Now, 16 the first thing I want to do is point out that the pleas are 17 going to be somewhat different here. And I want to take -- deal
18 with Ms. Preszler first, and then we'll deal with Mr. Preszler.
19 So, just give me a minute to get organized. Okay. Now, with 20 regard to Ms. Preszler, as I mentioned, we're going to take you
21 separately from your husband. I want to make sure that we're 22 addressing each of you individually. So, we're going to take you
23 first. And with regard to the charges that you are proceeding
24 with here, they include, as I understand it, Counts Six, Twenty 25 and Twenty-One. Is that everybody's understanding?

1 MR. MICHAELSEN: Yes, Your Honor.

2 MR. LYNCH: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Now, with regard to those counts, is 4 there any need for me to discuss with you, Ms. Preszler, the 5 underlying charges there and the penalty ranges or do you think
6 you understand them?

7 MS. PRESZLER: I understand, sir.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Now, with regard to your rights, I
9 need to tell you about the rights that you're giving up or 10 waiving when you decide you want to plead guilty and they deal
11 with the trial. So, you're giving up a lot of rights here by 12 saying you want to come in and plead guilty. Now, I know counsel
13 has gone through this with you, but I need to make sure you
14 understand these. So, bear with me while we go through it.
15 First of all, you understand that you have a right to have this 16 matter tried before a jury, and there would be 12 members on the 17 jury. And all 12 of them would have to be unanimous in finding 18 either guilt or innocence before they could return to court with 19 a verdict on any of these charges. Do you understand that?

20 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Do you understand that during the course of 22 the trial, you would have the right to be assisted by your 23 counsel, and he would do all the things that a competent, well-
24 prepared lawyer does? He would help you select a jury. He would 25 make an opening statement to the jury about the evidence. He

1 would cross-examine the Government's witnesses. He'd present
2 whatever evidence you wanted him to present and he'd also argue
3 the case and help the judge formulate appropriate instructions.
4 Do you understand that that would be his function here?

5 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Do you also understand that during the 7 course of the trial, you would be presumed to be innocent of 8 these charges? In other words, the scales of justice would 9 already be tilted in your favor and the Government would have to 10 overcome that presumption of innocence and prove your guilt
11 beyond a reasonable doubt before a jury could return here with a 12 guilty verdict on any of these charges? Do you understand that 13 right?

14 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Do you also understand that during the 16 course of the trial, you have a right to be confronted by the 17 witnesses against you? In other words, the Government would have 18 to produce their witnesses here in open court and your lawyer
19 would get a chance to cross-examine them. Do you understand that 20 right?

21 MS. PRESZLER: I do, sir.

22 THE COURT: Do you also understand that during the 23 course of the trial, you would have a right, if you wanted to, to 24 take the stand and testify on your own behalf? Do you know that?

25 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: And do you also know that correspondingly
2 you have a right not to testify in the course of this trial, and 3 the judge would instruct the jury that they could not draw any 4 adverse or bad inference about your guilt or innocence simply 5 because you didn't testify? Do you understand that?

6 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Do you understand that during the course of 8 the trial, you would have the right to have witnesses subpoenaed
9 down here under federal court order and testify in this case?
10 Even if they didn't want to come, they'd be forced to come. Do
11 you know that?

12 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Do you also understand that during the 14 course of the trial, frequently criminal defendants take the 15 posture that they don't want to testify, they don't want to call 16 any additional witnesses and they simply want to rely on the 17 presumption of innocence and the high proof of proof beyond a 18 reasonable doubt and argue to the jury that the Government has 19 simply failed to satisfy that burden of proof. And sometimes
20 that results in an acquittal here. Do you understand that you
21 would have a right to do that in this case?

22 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, I do.

23 THE COURT: Do you also understand that if there came 24 back a verdict from this jury that was adverse to you, in other
25 words, if there was a guilty verdict on any one of these charges,

1 that would not end the discussion. You would then have a right
2 to take this matter up to the court of appeals. And the 3 transcript of the proceedings down here would be prepared and 4 counsel will get an opportunity to present written arguments to 5 the judges and also oral arguments to the judges in front of 6 them. There would be a panel of three judges who would review
7 all of that, hear all those arguments. And if two of those three 8 judges thought you didn't get a fair shake down here, that case
9 would be reversed and sent back down to our court with a
10 directive that we either try the case again or that we dismiss 11 the charges against you. Do you understand that you have that 12 right?

13 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Now, when you come in here and you tell me
15 that you want to plead guilty to these charges under this plea
16 bargain arrangement, do you understand that you're giving up all 17 of these significant constitutional and other rights, and the 18 only thing that's going to happen is there will be a sentencing 19 at some point. Do you know that?

20 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Now, with regard to the factual basis here,
22 at some point in these proceedings, I'm going to place you under 23 oath and ask you questions why it is you think you are guilty of 24 these charges. Not why you think you're innocent of them, but 25 why you think you're guilty of them. And the purpose of that is

1 to make sure that you don't come in here and plead guilty and 2 actually think you're innocent, because we don't want to have 3 people do that. We'd prefer to have them actually concede that 4 they are guilty. And if so, then, you know, we'll accept the 5 guilty plea. So, you'll be under oath and you're required,
6 obviously, to testify truthfully. And you'll do that, correct?

7 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Now, with regard to the disclosures
9 here, the Government has made this a voluntary disclosure case?

10 MR. MICHAELSEN: That's correct, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Is there anything that you've not disclosed
12 to counsel with regard to Ms. Preszler?

13 MR. MICHAELSEN: No, not at this time, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And with regard to this situation, is 15 it your believe that this is in the best interest of justice to 16 go forward with this Plea Bargain?

17 MR. MICHAELSEN: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Now, concerning that file,
19 Counsel, you've seen it and reviewed it with your client?

20 MR. LYNCH: I have, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: And you believe that under these 22 circumstances, it's in her best interest to go ahead and plead
23 guilty under this agreement?

24 MR. LYNCH: I do, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. With regard to the factual basis, I'd

1 ask you at this point to stand and raise your right hand so I can 2 place you under oath.

3 DONNA M. PRESZLER, DEFENDANT, SWORN

4 THE COURT: Okay. Now, you may be seated. I'm going to 5 ask the Government, if you would, would you lay out -- I know
6 that there's a lengthy statement in each of these Plea Bargain
7 Agreements. But would you outline for us here on the record
8 essentially what the evidence would be as to Ms. Preszler?

9 MR. MICHAELSEN: Yes, Your Honor. The evidence to 10 support the factual basis contained in Paragraph 3 of the party's 11 Plea Agreement would consist primarily of witness statements.
12 Those being statements from the victims in this case, from Burdg, 13 Dunham & Associates. Also consists of other statements and also 14 statements of the defendants themselves, in particular statements
15 from Ms. Preszler with -- as it pertains to her. The evidence
16 would also consist of substantial voluminous bank records in this 17 case, summaries of bank records, as well as summaries of payroll
18 records and financial records from the victims in this case,
19 Burdg, Dunham & Associates. As to the tax portion of the case, 20 also there would be a substantial -- there would be an amount of 21 tax returns and tax records as well. Your Honor, there were no
22 search warrants in this case. There was a seizure warrant but it 23 was related to asset forfeiture and seizure of assets, not an 24 evidentiary seizure in this matter. And that would be the basis
25 to support the evidence as it is outlined in Paragraph 3.

1 THE COURT: Okay. And Count -- let's go through each of 2 them, if we can here. In Count Six, there is some introductory 3 language on page 3 that talks about the period of time between
4 June 30th of 2006, and June 15th of 2012, saying that Ms. Preszler
5 executed a scheme or artifice to defraud, to obtain money and 6 credits and property owned and in the custody of BDA by means of 7 material false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and 8 promises. Can you describe for me essentially what that scheme 9 was?

10 MR. MICHAELSEN: Yes, Your Honor. Ms. Preszler was 11 employed as an account manager at the Burdgy, Dunham & Associates.
12 Through her employment she was able to set up direct deposits to 13 her personal bank accounts that she had and held jointly with her
14 husband and with others. As a result of those direct deposits
15 that were made as part of her payroll direct deposits, and they 16 were included under a column as essentially as an expense
17 reimbursement and not as actual pay, therefore, there were no
18 taxes withheld from that amount. Throughout the scheme when it
19 began, the amounts increased. And Ms. Preszler towards the end
20 was -- towards the end in that manner of the scheme, she took 21 approximately $3.9 million from Burdgy, Dunham & Associates in 22 that manner. And in particular for Count Six, that pertains to 23 one of the weekly ACH payroll transfers, direct deposits to her
24 accounts that occurred on June 13th of 2012. And at that time
25 the amount of that fraudulent non-taxable pay or expense

1 reimbursement was $35,000. These transfers were set up via ACH,
2 download files which caused them to be uploaded to the Internet
3 and resulted in a wire transfer of the uploads of these payroll
4 download files.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And with regard to that description,
6 Counsel, do you agree that the Government's description here
7 would comport with the evidence you've seen in their file?

8 MR. LYNCH: Yes, Your Honor. I think the Government was 9 accurate with respect to its articulation of the facts and 10 circumstances of the case.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So now, Ms. Preszler, with regard to 12 that count, it alleges, starting page 4, and if you've got a copy
13 of there, you can follow along. On or about the dates listed
14 below, for the specific counts in the Western District of 15 Missouri, you, for the purpose of executing this alleged scheme
16 and artifice to defraud and to obtain money and property, did
17 knowingly cause to be transmitted in interstate commerce by means
18 of wire communication certain signals, that is, weekly ACH
19 payroll data files sent via wire transfers on the Internet from 20 BDA in Hamilton, Missouri, to FreedomWare, LLC's computer servers
21 in New York, to initiate and process false and fictitious weekly
22 ACH payments from BDA's bank accounts to Defendant Donna M.
23 Preszler's personal bank accounts and others, on or about the 24 dates listed below, in the amounts listed in each specific count.
25 And then on Count Six, it's got it listed at June 13th of 2012,

1 the amount that was fraudulent and non-taxable pay was alleged to 2 be $35,000. First of all, do you understand what it is you're 3 charged with in that count? Do you understand what it is you're 4 charged with that count?

5 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, I do, sir.

6 THE COURT: And with regard to those factual allegations
7 here made by the prosecutor and by -- and concurred in by your 8 counsel, do you agree that the evidence would be established so
9 that you could be found guilty of that charge?

10 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, I do.

11 THE COURT: And with regard to that charge, do you think 12 you're actually guilty of it?

13 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, I do.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So, you concur with the fact that you
15 developed this fraud scheme, correct?

16 MS. PRESZLER: Yes.

17 THE COURT: And during the course of that period of 18 time, you caused to be transported or transmitted in interstate 19 commerce by wire on June 13th of 2012, the amount of $35,000, 20 right?

21 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: And at the time you did that, you did it
23 knowingly, right?

24 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: Right?

1 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And you did it intentionally, right?

3 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: And you knew that this was, you know,
5 although you might not have known this exact statute, you knew
6 what you were doing was probably illegal, right?

7 MS. PRESZLER: That's correct, sir.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So, you think you're guilty on that 9 count?

10 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: All right. Now, let's move on to the second
12 count, which is the Count Twenty, which is a little bit
13 different. And there it says that on or about the dates listed
14 below, for the specific counts, in the Western District of 15 Missouri, Defendant Donna M. Preszler, knowingly engaged and 16 attempted to be engaged in a monetary transaction, in or 17 affecting interstate commerce or in criminally derived property
18 of a value of more than $10,000 with the funds represented by the 19 transactions having been derived from specific -- specified,
20 rather, unlawful activity, that is, wire fraud, as alleged in the 21 earlier counts. And Defendant Donna M. Preszler knew the 22 monetary transaction involved proceeds of a criminal offense, and 23 so knowing she caused the following monetary transactions to take 24 place as described below in each specific count. Now, we're here
25 talking about Count Twenty, which is alleged to be a date of a

1 check on June 22nd of 2012. And the amount of the check is 2 alleged to be $148,389.14. And the transaction is described as 3 Citizens Bank & Trust cashier's check number 200860 payable to 4 Chillicothe State Bank, Loan Number 512. Now, with regard to 5 that count, are you aware of what that count charges here?
6 Basically it's a monetary transaction that they're alleging here.

7 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: And with regard to that count, is it true
9 that on June 22nd of 2012, that you caused that transaction to 10 occur in a sum of roughly about $148,000?

11 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: And when you did that, did you do it
13 knowingly?

14 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: And did you do it intentionally?

16 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: And did you believe at the time that that 18 was against the law in some form or fashion?

19 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Now, you're kind of hesitating there.
21 And I get uncomfortable when people do that. But do you think 22 you're actually guilty of this count?

23 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir, I am.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Now, let's move on to the third one.
25 I know you're -- this is tough stuff but just bear with me. I've

1 got to go through it with you. So, the final one is Count
2 Twenty-One. And that's a charge that alleges that for the tax
3 years 2007 through 2012, that you and your husband, Terrance,
4 filed their federal income tax returns jointly as husband and
5 wife. And during those years, you and Terrance failed to report
6 the fraudulently obtained funds from BDA on your federal income
7 tax returns submitted to the IRS for each of the following years.
8 And so with regard to that count, it continues to allege that on 9 or about February 19th of 2013, in this district, both of you
10 being residents of Chillicothe and married, did willfully make 11 and subscribe and file with the Internal Revenue Service a Form
12 1040, that's the Individual Income Tax Return, for the year 2012, 13 which was verified by written declaration that it was made under 14 the penalty of perjury and was filed with the Director of IRS at 15 the center here in Kansas City, Missouri, which return the 16 defendants then and there knew was not true and correct as to 17 every material matter, in that the defendants then and there knew
18 and believed that the return materially understated the income
19 obtained by the defendants through embezzlement from Ms.
20 Preszler's employer. In particular, the defendants represented
21 for 2012 their income was only $46,863.00, whereas, the 22 defendants then and there knew and believed their total income,
23 including the embezzled funds, was actually $851,863.00. Do you
24 understand what you're charged with there in that count?

25 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay. And with regard to that count, do you
2 think you're guilty of that count?

3 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: And when you did that and you filed that 5 income tax return, you did it knowingly, correct?

6 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: And you did it intentionally, right?

8 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: And you knew that it was an error or legal 10 mistake to do that, right?

11 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: So, do you think you're actually guilty of 13 that count?

14 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Now, you may be seated. Do you need
16 a minute?

17 MS. PRESZLER: No, sir.

18 THE COURT: Okay. We're done with the hard stuff, so
19 just take a deep breath. Do you need some water or something?

20 MS. PRESZLER: No, thank you.

21 THE COURT: Okay. We can get you some if you do. All
22 right. Now, the rest of it is fairly simple here. So, let me go
23 through that. With regard to the Plea Agreement, Ms. Preszler,
24 have you had an adequate opportunity to review this document, all
25 21 pages of it, with your counsel?

1 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Is there anything in the document that you
3 don't understand?

4 MS. PRESZLER: No, sir.

5 THE COURT: And with regard to that document, I'm going
6 to go through it with you just kind of briefly to make sure that 7 you really do understand the provisions of it. That's not a
8 reflection on you or your counsel, it's just the way I do things.

9 MS. PRESZLER: Okay.

10 THE COURT: So, bear with me, okay?

11 MS. PRESZLER: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Now, the first part of it, page 1, 13 I'm going to hear -- here is what I'm going to do. I'm going to 14 refer to the page number and then the paragraph on that page.
15 Okay?

16 MS. PRESZLER: Yes.

17 THE COURT: The first page, Paragraph 1, it talks about 18 the parties. This binds only the United States Attorney for the 19 Western District of Missouri and you. That's all the people that 20 are associated with this Plea Agreement. It doesn't bind anyone 21 else, any other prosecutors. Do you understand that?

22 MS. PRESZLER: Yes.

23 THE COURT: At Paragraph 2 there's a statement
24 concerning the guilty plea, and we've talked about that and 25 you're going to plead guilty to Six and Twenty and Twenty-One,

1 and we went through that with you. Then if you go to page 3, it
2 begins at Paragraph -- excuse me, page 2, it begins at Paragraph
3 3, the factual basis for the guilty plea. And that goes on all
4 the way over to page 6. Now, have you read that?

5 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: And do you agree with the information in 7 that section of the Plea Agreement?

8 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Then if you would, the next part of 10 it is at page 7, Paragraph 5. This is the statutory penalties
11 here. And we've referred to those, we haven't gone through them.
12 But have you read that and you understand the penalty ranges here
13 you face on each of these counts?

14 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Now, go over to page 8. This is the 16 sentencing procedures. This is how the judge will impose
17 sentencing here. And here is what I want to do. I want to focus 18 just on (g) and some of the sections that follow that, because 19 there is a forfeiture count here. And the Government is seeking 20 to forfeit an amount of money that related to all of this. And 21 you understand that, correct?

22 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So, with regard to that, it says that 24 the court is not bound by any recommendation regarding sentencing
25 to be imposed or the calculation of the Sentencing Guidelines.

1 So, first of all, the judge has to make a decision on his own
2 about what's a legal sentence in this case. What the parties
3 have thought that the, you know, agree that should happen here is 4 not binding on Judge Gaitan. Do you understand that?

5 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Now, we've got good lawyers here, so we're
7 not anticipating any problems. But it's important you understand
8 that that's his responsibility to arrive at whatever would be an 9 appropriate legal sentence. Do you understand that?

10 MS. PRESZLER: I do understand.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Then under (g), it says you can't 12 withdraw your guilty plea because you don't like the nature of 13 the sentence that you get from the judge. Under (I), it says
14 that you agree that the United States may institute civil,
15 judicial or administrative forfeiture proceedings against all 16 forfeitable assets. And it then talks about how you agree to 17 forfeit your interest you own or over which you exercise control
18 of any assets subject to forfeiture. And it goes on in (k) to 19 talk about providing information about the existence and location 20 of those, under (l), about taking necessary steps to help in the 21 forfeiture effort. And in the event that federal, state or local 22 law enforcement agencies having custody of the property decide
23 not to pursue the forfeiture of the property due to minimal 24 value, the defendant hereby abandons any interest you have in 25 such property and talks about within ten days of execution of

1 this agreement, that you agree to execute and submit information
2 to the Government concerning these issues. So, I kind of want to 3 make sure you understand that that's part of this deal, too, the 4 forfeiture aspect.

5 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir, I do.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Now, if you go over to page 10, it
7 talks about the Government's agreements. Here is what they're 8 doing in response to your promises. They're saying they're not 9 going to bring any additional charges against you arising out of 10 this investigation and they're agreeing to recommend that the 11 court order that the sentences imposed on Counts Six, Twenty and 12 Twenty-One run concurrently, that means together. So, the judge 13 is going to get a recommendation that they not be added one to 14 the other. Do you understand all of that?

15 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: In addition, the United States agrees to 17 dismiss the remaining counts of the Indictment as they apply to 18 you. Do you understand what that means?

19 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: All right. Now, just to make sure, if you
21 would, I want you to go to page 12. Here we talk about the 22 Sentencing Guidelines. Have you discussed those with your 23 counsel?

24 MS. PRESZLER: Yes.

25 THE COURT: You've got a general idea of what they mean?

1 MS. PRESZLER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: It's almost like filling out your tax
3 return, not to get taxes back into it. But it's kind of like 4 that.

5 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: You figure out what a person's criminal
7 history is and then the seriousness of the offense and then the 8 judge gets a range of months that, you know, he or she can 9 impose. So, with regard to that section, the guidelines are 10 simply advisory. In other words, most of our judges follow them.
11 But, you know, they don't necessarily have to as long as they 12 impose a legal sentence obviously. With regard to this 13 situation, we've got agreement here that the applicable
14 guidelines range for the offenses is set out there, and I'm not 15 going to cover those. Then it says that you're going to be 16 subject to a two-level enhancement for abuse of position. That 17 means they're adding two points onto your guidelines calculation,
18 which is not in your interest. That hurts you. The applicable
19 guidelines for Twenty-One is set out there. And then they agree 20 that you're subject to a two-level enhancement for failing to 21 report and correctly identify the source of your income exceeding 22 $10,000. Again, that's not good stuff. But they're agreeing
23 that it's subject to a two-level enhancement or adjustment. And 24 then it says that you're admitting your guilt at (I) on page 13.
25 You're admitting your guilt and, therefore, you're going to get a

1 two-level reduction -- a three-level reduction, which is helpful
2 to you. And then it says on (j) that the judge is going to 3 determine your criminal history, which we don't think there's 4 anything there anyway. But do you at least understand generally
5 what all that stuff is about?

6 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, I do.

7 THE COURT: Do you want to ask me any questions about 8 it?

9 MS. PRESZLER: No, thank you.

10 THE COURT: Good. All right. I think that's it. I
11 need to ask you with regard then to the Plea Agreement, is 12 everything you've been told and promised contained with the 21
13 pages of this agreement?

14 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Has anyone made any other promises to you?

16 MS. PRESZLER: No, sir.

17 THE COURT: Has anyone made any threats to get you to 18 come in here and plead guilty under this agreement?

19 MS. PRESZLER: No, sir.

20 THE COURT: Is it your free and voluntary act in every 21 sense of those words?

22 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: And with regard to your counsel here, have 24 you been satisfied with his performance?

25 MS. PRESZLER: Very much so.

1 THE COURT: Has he done anything that you haven't wanted
2 him to do?

3 MS. PRESZLER: No.

4 THE COURT: Has he failed to do something that you've 5 asked him to do?

6 MS. PRESZLER: No.

7 THE COURT: Tell me your age.

8 MS. PRESZLER: My age is 60.

9 THE COURT: And how far have you gone in school?

10 MS. PRESZLER: Twelfth grade.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And with regard to reading and 12 writing and understanding English, have you had any difficulty 13 doing that?

14 MS. PRESZLER: No, sir.

15 THE COURT: Do you have any physical or mental health
16 issues that would affect your ability to make a smart decision
17 today about pleading guilty?

18 MS. PRESZLER: I don't believe so, sir.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Well, if you do, tell me about them.

20 MS. PRESZLER: No, I don't.

21 THE COURT: No. You're not -- you don't have any kind 22 of -- sometimes we have folks come in here who are suffering from 23 pain and have excruciating pain and that might affect their 24 ability to plead guilty. Sometimes they come in here and they 25 have bipolar disorder or something like that. So, I need to know

1 those things. Anything along those lines?

2 MS. PRESZLER: No.

3 THE COURT: Anything about substances, alcohol, drugs,
4 anything like that that you're on today that would affect your 5 ability to plead guilty?

6 MS. PRESZLER: No, sir.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And with regard then to the plea
8 here, before I turn to your lawyer and I ask for the final pleas
9 of guilty here, I want to give you an opportunity to raise any 10 concerns that you might have about anything that hasn't been 11 discussed. If you are concerned about something that nobody has 12 touched upon and nobody has answered this question or you've got 13 a complaint about something, now is the chance to do it before
14 you plead guilty. So, if you want to raise something, I'm happy
15 to hear about it.

16 MS. PRESZLER: I don't have anything, sir.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Then at this --

18 MS. PRESZLER: John has taken very good care of me.

19 THE COURT: I'm sure he has. I'm sure he has. At this 20 point then, Counsel, what are the pleas to these three counts?

21 MR. LYNCH: Ms. Preszler will enter pleas of guilty to 22 all three counts, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Your pleas at this point are guilty to these 24 three charges, is that correct?

25 MS. PRESZLER: That is correct, sir.

1           THE COURT: We'll go ahead and enter those pleas into
2 the record here at our court, and I'll order a Presentence
3 Investigation. And what'll happen at this point is Probation
4 will get a report prepared. You'll get a chance to see it, and 5 if there's anything in it that's incorrect, you'll get a chance
6 to raise those and then there will be a sentencing so that's kind
7 of where you're going. Okay. Now, with regard to Mr. Preszler, 8 I'd like to maybe take --

9           MR. MICHAELSEN: Your Honor?

10          THE COURT: Go ahead.

11          MR. MICHAELSEN: If I may just for the record, --

12          THE COURT: Yeah. Yeah. Go ahead. Please.

13          MR. MICHAELSEN: -- I want to point out two other
14 provisions of the Plea Agreement for dealing with Ms. Preszler's
15 Plea Agreement.

16          THE COURT: Please. Just one second.

17          MR. MICHAELSEN: Also in the parties' Plea Agreement on 18 Paragraph 15, there is, and I think the Court briefly covered 19 this with her with respect to her general rights. But in 20 particular, under Paragraph 15, she's waived her right, her
21 appellate rights and post-conviction rights. Under subparagraph
22 (a), she expressly acknowledges and understands and agrees that 23 by pleading guilty pursuant to the Plea Agreement, she waives her
24 right to appeal or collaterally attack a finding of guilt
25 following the acceptance of the Plea Agreement, except on grounds

1 of ineffective assistance of counsel or prosecutorial misconduct.
2 And then on subparagraph (b), the defendant expressly waives her
3 right to appeal her sentence, directly or collaterally on any 4 ground except either ineffective assistance of counsel,
5 prosecutorial misconduct or an illegal sentence. And then I also 6 just wanted to note for the Court as well that under Paragraph
7 16, the defendant has agreed to the restitution order in this 8 case which the court will order at the time of sentencing in the 9 amount of $3,912,000 to the victim in this case, Burdg, Dunham &
10 Associates Construction Corporation as well as $1,236,690 to the 11 IRS as part of the tax case in this case, Your Honor. And I
12 would also note just for the record that the victims in this case
13 are present in the courtroom here today.

14 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So, with regard to those 15 provisions, are you aware of those, Ms. Preszler?

16 MS. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: And so any questions about that?

18 MS. PRESZLER: No, sir.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Any additional examination by the 20 United States?

21 MR. MICHAELSEN: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Anything that defense counsel wants to 23 raise?

24 MR. LYNCH: No, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Let's do this. We've been going

1 through a marathon here and I know everybody is tired of
2 listening to me. So, we'll take five minutes and then come back
3 and we'll do Mr. Preszler. Okay. All right.

4 (Court in Recess from 10:51 a.m. until 11:01 a.m.)

5 THE COURT: Okay. Be seated. Okay. Now, we're back on 6 the record in the case involving Mr. and Mrs. Preszler. We've 7 completed the change of plea for Ms. Preszler. We're going to 8 move now into the plea proceeding as to Terrance W. Preszler.
9 And this is a more easily handled plea because we're talking
10 about just one count, Count Twenty-One, plus the forfeiture count
11 as a I understand it. Anybody have a different take on that? I
12 don't think so. With regard to the proceedings, Mr. Preszler,
13 I'm going to cover the same information essentially that I
14 covered with your wife. You were here for that proceeding. And 15 so much of the explanation that I gave to your wife, I assume 16 that you heard.

17 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: And so I may not repeat all of that. But if 19 there are any questions that you have, I want you to feel very 20 comfortable in asking me about it. Okay?

21 MR. PRESZLER: Okay.

22 THE COURT: So, I'm going to go through the same drill
23 with you. And the reason for that is this is an important 24 proceeding and it's important you understand exactly what your 25 rights are. So, bear with me as we cover much of the same

1 information we covered with your wife. First of all, we're
2 talking here about Count Twenty-One and the forfeiture count.
3 And let's just kind of look at those for purposes of the 4 proceeding here. This is the tax case, the false income tax
5 return case. Do you have that in front of you by chance?

6 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, I do.

7 THE COURT: It's at page 6. And there it alleges that 8 sometime for the years 2007 to 2012, you and your wife filed
9 income tax returns jointly as husband and wife. And during those 10 years it alleges that you and your wife failed to report the 11 fraudulently obtained funds from BDA on your federal income tax
12 returns submitted to the IRS for each year. And then it goes on 13 to address the year for 2012. And it says that on or about 14 February 19th of 2013, in this district, you and your wife,
15 residents of Chillicothe, who were married during the calendar
16 year 2012, did willfully make, subscribe and file with the IRS, a 17 Form 1040, Income Tax Return for the year 2012, which was 18 verified by written declaration that it was made under the 19 penalties of perjury and was filed with the Director, Internal 20 Revenue Service Center, at Kansas City, Missouri, which return
21 the defendants then and there knew was not true and correct as to 22 every material matter, in that the defendants then and there well 23 knew and believed that the return materially understated the 24 income obtained by Donna Preszler through embezzlement from her 25 employer, in particular the defendants represented for 2012 their

1 total income was only $46,863, whereas, as you then knew and 2 believed your total income, including the embezzled funds, was
3 actually greater, $851,863, in violation of the Federal Tax Code.
4 Do you understand what it is you're charged with in that count?

5 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: And with regard -- you can remain seated.
7 You don't need to stand up for this. If you go back to the front
8 page of that document over here on the right-hand side, it covers
9 Count Twenty-One. This is what the statutory penalty is or the 10 worst-case scenario for anybody who pleads guilty to this type of 11 a charge. And here the penalty range is not more than three 12 years in prison, a fine of not more than $100,000, supervised
13 release of not more than one year and a $100 mandatory special 14 assessment, also the potential for restitution to the alleged 15 victims or victim here and also the potential also included in 16 this Plea Agreement is the forfeiture allegation, which 17 apparently you've agreed to concede to as well. Do you
18 understand the nature of the charge here including the forfeiture 19 penalty?

20 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: And the penalty ranges otherwise, you 22 understand those?

23 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Now, much as I did with your wife,
25 I'm going to cover the same rights that you're giving up here.

1 You know, we would set this case for trial and that's what we do
2 around here is we try cases. So, the case would be set for
3 trial. But by coming in here today, you're telling me that you
4 want to plead guilty under this plea bargain arrangement. With 5 regard to the rights that you have, you know that you have the 6 right to have this case tried by a jury, and there would be 12
7 members of the jury and they would have to be unanimous in their 8 verdict. Do you know that?

9 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: Do you know that you would have the right to 11 be assisted by your counsel here at every stage of those 12 proceedings, everything from the selection of the jury, to the 13 final instructions by the judge. He would help the judge and 14 conduct his examination of the Government's witnesses and the 15 presentation of any evidence you wanted the jury to hear. Do you
16 understand that that would be the nature of his role?

17 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Do you also understand, again as I told your 19 wife, that you're presumed to be innocent? And that's a pretty 20 big deal around here. In other words, the jury is told that they 21 have to assume that you're already not guilty. And the 22 Government has to overcome that presumption and prove your guilt
23 beyond a reasonable doubt, which is the highest standard of proof
24 required in any proceeding in any court of the United States. Do 25 you understand that?

1 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Do you understand that you would have a
3 right to be confronted by the witnesses against you here in 4 court? In other words, the Government couldn't just call an 5 agent to testify here, we'd have to have the witnesses who 6 perceived these activities or could testify about these about 7 activities. Do you know that?

8 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: And do you also know that during the course
10 of the trial, you would have the right to testify if you wanted 11 to testify in this case? Do you know that?

12 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: And you also know that you would also have 14 the right, as I mentioned to your wife, not to testify and that 15 the jury could not draw any adverse or bad inference because you
16 didn't take the stand and present your side of the case. You 17 know that?

18 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: You also know that you would have the right
20 to have witnesses subpoenaed down here under federal court order
21 to testify. And we would issue those orders and get those folks
22 down here if you wanted them here. Do you understand that?

23 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: And also as I explained to your wife, you
25 also would have a right, and frequently occurs, not to testify

1 and not to present any evidence and just stand on the presumption
2 of innocence and the proof beyond a reasonable doubt. And
3 sometimes that results in an acquittal in these cases. Do you
4 understand that?

5 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Do you also understand that you would also 7 have a right to have your matter reviewed by the court of 8 appeals? There's a three judge panel who would draw this case
9 and they would order the lawyers to submit the transcript of what 10 they wanted the judges to read of what happened down here at the 11 trial. And your lawyer and Government counsel would file written 12 briefs about those issues and they would go up there, either here
13 in Kansas City or St. Louis or Minnesota and argue in front of 14 that panel that in your case why it is that conviction should be 15 set aside. Do you understand you have that right?

16 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: And now you understand that when you come in 18 here and you tell me you want to plead guilty, you're giving up
19 all of these rights. And the only thing we're going to do is 20 then move to a sentencing at some point. You know that?

21 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Right. Okay. Now, with regard to the 23 proceedings, as I told your wife, I'm going to place you under 24 oath. And you'll tell me the truth about this, why you think 25 you're actually guilty, right?

1 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: All right. Now, the file here, we've gone
3 through that with Government counsel. It's been essentially an
4 open file case by the Government. The Government has disclosed
5 everything in Mr. Preszler's case, correct?

6 MR. MICHAELSEN: Yes, Your Honor. It's been voluntary
7 disclosure by the Government.

8 THE COURT: Right. And, so, with that information,
9 you've reviewed that with your client, correct?

10 MR. LYNCH: I have, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: And you think this is a smart decision for 12 him to make under these circumstances?

13 MR. LYNCH: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And with regard to the factual basis
15 here, will the Government lay out what the factual basis -- I
16 know it's also in the plea bargain, but would you lay out for me
17 what the underlying factual basis would be here for this 18 conviction?

19 MR. MICHAELSEN: Yes, Your Honor. Essentially the 20 evidence in this case to support the factual allegations
21 contained under Paragraph 3 of the parties' Plea Agreement would 22 consist of witness statements in this case, including statements
23 that the defendant himself, that he made, voluminous bank
24 records, the income tax returns filed on behalf of Mr. and Mrs.
25 Preszler, also as well as voluminous or summaries of voluminous

1 bank records and financial records, also records of the victim
2 company, Burdgy, Dunham & Associates, that support the amount of 3 the embezzlement income that was failed to be reported on the 4 income tax returns. A little more specifically in this case,
5 Your Honor, in approximately June of 2012, when the fraudulent
6 embezzlement scheme came to light, Ms. Preszler was interviewed
7 at her residence by Special Agent Kurt Lipanovich with the FBI,
8 at which time Ms. Preszler admitted her crimes and admitted her
9 embezzlement of a substantial amount of money. That all occurred
10 in front of Mr. Preszler at that time. And additionally, around
11 that same time in June of 2012, the victims in that case fired
12 Ms. Preszler from her job and also instituted a civil lawsuit
13 against both the Preszlers and their various family members for 14 the amount of -- to recover the amount of money that has been 15 stolen and taken from them. That occurred in June of 2012. Then 16 the income tax return in support of the count under Count Twenty-
17 One in this case was actually filed by the Preszlers in February 18 of 2013 for their 2012 return at which time they reported the 19 adjusted gross income of $46,863, and actually reported and 20 requested a refund in the amount of $3,132. At that time, all 21 full well and knowing that the embezzlement had occurred for that 22 2012 and that none of that income was reported --

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. MICHAELSEN: -- on the 2012 tax return.

25 THE COURT: Right. Right. So, you agree with what the

1 Government has said here with regard to the file and their
2 evidence, correct, counsel?

3 MR. LYNCH: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Yeah. And with regard to that, do you agree
5 that the Government could produce that evidence at trial, Mr.
6 Preszler?

7 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

8 THE COURT: With regard to your factual basis, I ask you
9 at this point to stand and raise your right hand, sir.

10 TERRANCE W. PRESZLER, DEFENDANT, SWORN

11 THE COURT: You may be seated, sir. Now, let's go
12 through the count here. It alleges for the tax year, February -- 13 well, excuse me. It alleges that on or about February 19th of 14 2013, in this district, you and your wife were residents of 15 Chillicothe in Missouri and were married at that time, correct?

16 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

17 THE COURT: And during the calendar year of 2012 you
18 were also married, correct?

19 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: And you also made a 1040 return during that 21 period for the calendar year 2012, correct?

22 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: And in that filing that you submitted to the 24 IRS, you knew at that point that you had income far greater than 25 $46,863, correct?

1 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And when you submitted that report to the 3 IRS reflecting the $46,863, you knew that that was incorrect and 4 there were these embezzled funds. Did you know approximately how 5 much that was or not?

6 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: You knew it was substantial?

8 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

9 THE COURT: You might not have known the actual dollar
10 figure, but you knew that it was a lot of money?

11 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: Yeah. And so when you submitted the return
13 to the IRS with this information that was false, did you do that 14 knowingly?

15 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Did you do it intentionally?

17 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: And do you think you're actually guilty of 19 this charge?

20 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Now, with regard to the plea bargain
22 arrangement here, have you gone through this 19-page document and 23 talked about it with your counsel?

24 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: Now, many of the provisions here are the

1 same as your wife's. There are a few different parts to it. But
2 I'm not going to cover everything as I did with her unless you
3 think you don't understand it that well. Do you understand it?

4 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to skip over some of the 6 stuff that just deals with the same information I discussed with 7 your wife and move directly to the ones that deal more
8 specifically with you. So, there's a factual basis in your case
9 as well. It's contained on pages 2 through 6 of the Plea Bargain
10 Agreement. Have you read that?

11 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, I have.

12 THE COURT: And is the information in there true?

13 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: And so you would agree that the Government
15 could produce that information at trial, right?

16 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Right?

18 MR. PRESZLER: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And with regard to the forfeiture
20 provision at 5, it says that you agree that the property
21 described in the Forfeiture Allegation of the Superseding
22 Indictment in the amount of $3,912,000, the listed property, the 23 listed personal property and all the funds seized from the listed
24 bank accounts and Funeral Trust Accounts is property that is 25 subject to forfeiture by the United States. Do you agree with 1 all that?

2 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: And then it's got the penalties there at 4 Paragraph 5 at page 6. And here you face a sentence of not more
5 than three years in prison, a $100,000 fine, supervised release
6 of one year and restitution, plus a $100 special assessment. The 7 same forfeiture provisions that we discussed about cooperating
8 with the Government with your wife, those also apply to you. Do
9 you understand that?

10 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: Then we've got at page 9 the Government's 12 agreements. Here they're agreeing that they're not going to 13 bring any additional charges against you for any of the offenses
14 reflected in this investigation. Do you understand that?

15 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Now, go over to page 11. We're talking
17 about the guidelines again. Do you think you generally 18 understand what this is all about?

19 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And so here at Paragraph 10, they say
21 that the parties agree that there is -- at subparagraph (c), the 22 parties agree that there's a two-level enhancement that's 23 applicable here to fail to report and correctly identify a source
24 of income exceeding $10,000. So there, again, that's bumping you
25 up two points. And then it says at (d), that you've admitted

1 your guilt so you're going to get a three-level reduction.
2 That's good for you. So, that's reducing it. And then at (e),
3 it says that the criminal history, if any, will be determined by 4 our District Court Judge in this case. Do you understand what 5 all that's about?

6 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Now, I know that Government counsel
8 wants me to cover some additional ones. So, if you'd point them
9 out to me, I'll go ahead and do that.

10 MR. MICHAELSEN: It's primarily Paragraph 15, the 11 appellate waiver, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Michaelsen points out that we've 13 got at page 14, Paragraph 15, which is the appellate waiver. And 14 that would include not only your right to appeal -- you would 15 have a right to appeal an illegal sentence obviously, but you
16 don't have a right to appeal anything else in connection with 17 this matter. And also it's precluding you from what we call
18 collaterally attacking your conviction, that is, trying to get it
19 set aside for some other reason later on after you've been, you
20 know, sentenced. So, do you understand what that's all about?

21 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: And any others that you want me to look at?

23 MR. MICHAELSEN: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Now, this is a pretty lengthy 25 document and I know it's been written fairly clearly. But

1 anything in that that you don't understand?

2 MR. PRESZLER: No, sir.

3 THE COURT: Is everything you've been promised contained
4 within the four corners of this 19-page document?

5 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Has anyone made any other promises to you?

7 MR. PRESZLER: No, sir.

8 THE COURT: Has anyone made any threats to you or your 9 family members to get you to come in here and plead guilty?

10 MR. PRESZLER: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: Now, tell me about your relationship with 12 your counsel. We've talked about how there's an apparent
13 potential for a conflict here. Have you been satisfied with is 14 performance here?

15 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Is there anything that he's done in your 17 case that you haven't wanted him to do?

18 MR. PRESZLER: No, sir.

19 THE COURT: Is there anything that he's failed to do for 20 you that you've asked him to do?

21 MR. PRESZLER: No, sir.

22 THE COURT: And with regard to your age, how old are 23 you?

24 MR. PRESZLER: I'm 63.

25 THE COURT: And how far have you gone in school?

1 MR. PRESZLER: Twelfth grade.

2 THE COURT: And no problems reading, writing or 3 understanding English, correct?

4 MR. PRESZLER: No, sir.

5 THE COURT: And with regard to your mental health and 6 your physical health, any problems today physically or mentally
7 that I should know about that would affect your ability to plead
8 guilty today?

9 MR. PRESZLER: No, sir.

10 THE COURT: Anything about substances, be it alcohol or,
11 you know, sometimes we're on prescription drugs that affect us
12 and anything like that that would be of concern to you?

13 MR. PRESZLER: No, sir.

14 THE COURT: So, you think you're clear-minded today and 15 able to make a smart decision?

16 MR. PRESZLER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Then I'm going to ask you, just as I
18 did with your wife, before I turn to your lawyer and ask for the 19 plea on Count Twenty-One, anything that you want to ask me? Any 20 issue you want to bring up that's been gnawing at you that nobody 21 has covered with you and nobody has answered before you do this 22 plea?

23 MR. PRESZLER: No, sir.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Then, counsel, what's the plea?

25 MR. LYNCH: Your Honor, Mr. Preszler will plead guilty

1 to Count Twenty-One of the Superseding Indictment.

2 THE COURT: Your plea is guilty under this Plea Bargain
3 arrangement, correct?

4 MR. PRESZLER: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Okay. We'll accept that plea and put it in 6 the record here at the District Court. I'll order a Presentence
7 Investigation. And similarly, it'll be about six or eight weeks
8 or maybe longer to get this thing done and then you'll be set up
9 for sentencing. I think I've covered everything but I fear that 10 I may have overlooked something. Mr. Michaelson?

11 MR. MICHAELSEN: Nothing further on behalf of the 12 Government, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Anything else on behalf of the defense?

14 MR. LYNCH: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to leave the bond
16 paper up here or did you pick it up already?

17 MR. LYNCH: Your Honor, I have it and I'm almost done
18 reviewing the conditions and I'll have them sign it.

19 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Good. Thank you all very 20 much. Have a good day.

21 MR. LYNCH: Thank you, Your Honor.
